Brian McClennan Coach Of The Leeds Rhinos In English Super League A brilliant coach - a great bloke!

Brian "Bluey" McClennan has taken the teams he's coached to the top and earned some of Rugby League's greatest honours. He's coached three consecutive Bartercard National Grand Final winning teams in Mt Albert 2005/06/07 and also Hibiscus Coast in 2001. In 2005 Brian's Kiwis became the Gillette Tri Nations Champions whitewashing the Kangaroos 24-0 in the final in Leeds to record their first series win over their trans-Tasman rival in 52 years. The following year he took them to the finals again narrowly missing top honours in an epic game. Now head coach of Leeds Rhinos, Brian's success continues - winning the World Club Challenge and the Super League Grand Final with the club in 2008.
